1 SEC. 10. REQUIREMENTS FOR DEPOSIT ACCOUNTS.

2 (a) SENSE OF CONGRESS.—It is the sense of Con-
3 gress that—

4 (1) appropriate Federal banking agencies have 5 a duty to ensure that the depository institutions su-
6 pervised by those agencies—

7 (A) are operating in a safe and sound
8 manner; and

9 (B) have processes and procedures in place
10 to identify fraudulent or illegal activity, whether 11 activity occurs at a depository institution or 12 through vendors or customers with which a de-
13 pository institution has a relationship;

14 (2) the duty described in paragraph (1) rests on 15 laws and regulations, not on personal beliefs or polit-
16 ical motivations;

17 (3) undue pressure and coercion designed to re-
18 strict access to financial services for lawful busi-
19 nesses have no place at any appropriate Federal 20 banking agency;

21 (4) depository institutions should provide bank-
22 ing services in the communities in which those insti-
23 tutions serve while carrying out customer identifica-
24 tion, risk-based customer diligence, and suspicious
25 activity monitoring and reporting obligations under 26 subchapter II of chapter 53 of title 31, United

1 States Code (referred to in this section as the “Bank
2 Secrecy Act”), with respect to the customers of 3 those institutions;

4 (5) despite the fact that individual customers of 5 depository institutions within broader customer cat-
6 egories present varying degrees of risk, all depository
7 institutions should take a risk-based approach
8 in assessing individual customer relationships rather 9 than decline to provide banking services to cat-
10 egories of customers without regard to the risks pre-11 sented by an individual customer or the ability of the 12 depository institution to manage the risk;

13 (6) depository institutions that properly manage
14 customer relationships and risks are neither prohib-
15 ited nor discouraged from providing services to cus-
16 tomers that are operating in compliance with appli-
17 cable Federal and State law; and

18 (7) each depository institution is responsible for 19 determining whether providing services to any par-
20 ticular customer is consistent with the business plan,
21 risk profile, and management capabilities of the de-
22 pository institution.

23 (b) CONDITIONS FOR TERMINATION.—

24 (1) IN GENERAL.—An appropriate Federal 25 banking agency may not request or require a depository

2 count or group of deposit accounts (including, but 3 not limited to, any deposit account of any customer
4 that is a State-sanctioned marijuana business or 5 service provider), unless—

6 (A) there is a valid reason for that request
7 or requirement, as described in paragraph (2);
8 and

9 (B) reputational risk is not the dispositive
10 factor for that request or requirement.

11 (2) VALID REASONS.—

12 (A) IN GENERAL.—To establish a valid
13 reason for a request or requirement under para-
14 graph (1), the appropriate Federal banking
15 agency shall document that the agency—

17 that the applicable depository institution or 18 any institution-affiliated party has en-
19 gaged, is engaged, or is about to engage 20 in—

21 (I) an unsafe or unsound practice
22 in conducting business;

23 (II) a violation of an applicable
24 law, rule, regulation, order, condition
25 imposed in writing, formal or informal

4 money laundering and countering the 5 financing of terrorism policy estab-
6 lished by the Secretary of the Treas-
7 ury under section 5318(h)(4) of title
8 31, United States Code, or otherwise
9 operating in a manner that is incon-
10 sistent with requirements of the Bank
11 Secrecy Act; or

12 (III) any activity, conduct, or 13 condition that could lead to, or has 14 led to, the issuance of a matter re-
15 quiring attention, a matter requiring
16 immediate attention, a matter requir-
17 ing board attention, a document of 18 resolution, or a supervisory rec-
19 ommendation; or

14           (iii);

16           scribed in clause (iii) or (iv), unless the ap-
17           propriate Federal banking agency deter-
18           mines that the customer or group of cus-
19           tomers has conducted due diligence to 20           avoid doing business with any entity de-
21           scribed in clause (iii) or (iv); or

22                           (vi) is engaged in—

23                                    (I) any other illicit conduct di-
24           rectly or indirectly supporting a
